Jason Strasford is a regular teenager – upbeat and affable. He likes to party hard, make friends and live life by his own rules. His carefree attitude is often criticized by many but Jason remains unaffected. At last the unavoidable happens and he is shaken back to front as it puts at stake his beliefs and most importantly his love. Wrecked and confounded, Jason sets off on a rip-roaring journey to achieve what the world around demanded from him, abandoning his leisurely life, starting on a new path. In no time he achieves and strikes it rich. But in spite of everything Jason feels a baffling bareness in his life as his past still hangs around. Join Jason in a simple yet unusual journey spanning ten years of his life to value friendship, grow mature, fall in love, realize hidden talents, combat inner demons and finally attain the singular goal of life – HAPPINESS.
