The book is aimed at instilling into every child a challenging attitude to dream of even the unlikely with a certainty feeling and to face even the impossible with possibility thinking.

This book has a magical power to make every child believe that the easiest to fetch is success and the closest to reach is happiness. It can exercise upon every child an irresistible appeal for stainless thinking, truthful talking, tireless sweating, rightful dealing, selfless loving and joyful living. It can also inject into a child, a longing to love God wholeheartedly.

S. Devaraj, the author of this book, has served as a teacher in mathematics and French for 27 years in Trichy. Right from his childhood days, he has strongly believed that positive thoughts are bound to perform unbelievable miracles. It is this belief that has prompted him to take up writing books and contributing articles not only to magazines but also to the leading national dailies, such as The Hindu and The Indian Express.

He has authored three books namely: Praying to the Father, Your happiness is in you and Short skits on social issues. Being with children and helping them to grow beautifully has always been a matchless delight to him.
